News from Around the Conference - March

United Church UCC, Huntsville, Prepares for 50th Anniversary

United Church Huntsville will celebrate its 50th anniversary October 2-3, 2010. There will be a special worship service with appearances by former pastors, and a celebration of its recent growth. One of the first congregations established by the Congregatonal Christian and Evangelical and Reformed home mission boards acting together, it was the first church of this combined effort in the Conference.

Kirkwood UCC, Atlanta, Featured in UCC Strengthen the Church Offering Materials

Kirkwood UCC, in Atlanta, led by Susannah Davis, was featured as a part of a bulletin insert promoting the Strengthen the Church Offering of the United Church of Christ. Begun in 2007, the church now worships at over 100 each Sunday, and is in the first steps of securing a permanent building. The Conference has applied for a loan to purchase a building for the congregation given their rapid growth. Kirkwood UCC began in a coffee shop. The church offers radical hospitality, and is reaching people who have little or no church experience.

A Word from Tougaloo College

Tougaloo College, one of the six historically black colleges affiliated with the UCC, and located in Jackson, MS, is the home to Union Chapel, the only UCC church in Mississippi at this time. They recently named Dr. Beverly Wade Hogan as their first woman president. It is consistently listed as one of the best colleges in the Southeast. You can learn more about this special presence of the UCC in Mississippi by visiting www.tougaloo.edu .

Oklahoma City church continues legacy of dedicated member

Stephanie Telleen chose to remember Mayflower Congregational United Church of Christ in her will when she passed away, leaving her half-million dollar estate to the church. Now the Oklahoma City church will use that estate to remember Telleen for her selflessness and generosity by funding two missions close to her heart.
